

Ryan Santonacita is an Audit Managing Director within the Audit and Assurance practice at KPMG LLP. Since joining the firm in 2009 and stepping into his current leadership role in October 2023, Ryan has specialized in delivering audit and attest services to organizations across the healthcare and not-for-profit sectors. A proud alumnus of St. Joseph's Regional High School (Class of 2005) and a licensed CPA in New York State, Ryan holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Loyola University Maryland. Outside of his professional endeavors, Ryan resides in Cranford, New Jersey, with his wife and their two daughters, Emilia (9) and Lucy (6). An avid runner, he actively channels his passion for sports into coaching his daughters' youth teams.